Another Festival Has Come and Gone

Thank You – Thank You – Thank You

You've done it again. Another festival in the books. What great weather and what a great turn out. Our parish always steps up not only to raise money but also to have fun and build community. What's not to like?

Thanks to our sponsors - Kenneth Gillette our Event Sponsor, Towne Properties who sponsored the music, Pilgrim Chapel sponsored the Chicken Dinner and Crowley's our beverage sponsor. Also a big thanks to all our booth sponsors, participating sponsors and in kind sponsors. You rock!

Committed people make things go and we had many willing volunteers. Our booth chairs managed their booths during both days of the event, our Silent Auction Chair, Suzanne Sanchez, went above and beyond the call of duty, the Casino chairs, the Mackison's, ran a tight ship and our booth volunteers did the grass roots heavy lifting. Thanks also to the unsung behind the scenes set up/clean up/tear down and food prep crews and our marketing team, which labored diligently to get the word out.

The silent auction was stocked with lots of goodies thanks to all who donated items and our cookie contest was a creative, fun event with delicious results courtesy of our gifted bakers.

The parish staff has quietly been working since January keeping plans on track, answering questions, directing phone calls, asking for and accepting donations, making suggestions and just being there. They are a big part of our success.

We appreciate all who attended, bought raffle tickets, spent big bucks at our booths, and ate, drank and were merry. We all had fun, fun and more fun.

We want to express our special thanks to our Guido Street neighbors who put up with the inconvenience of set up and having a two day "party" going on outside their front doors.

And thanks to Fr. Len for leading our prayers for good weather and mingling at the festival-welcoming parishioners, visitors and Mount Adams residents. We appreciate your support and involvement.

We won't know the financial results for a couple of months, as it takes that long for all the bills to arrive and the checks to be cut, but, rest assured, when the results are finalized, we'll let you know. We're very optimistic about the financial results.

*Thanks again and again,
Festival Planning Committee*
