The Jewish word "messiah," and the Greek word "Christ," both mean "anointed one," and came to refer to the expected king who would deliver Israel from the hands of the Romans. Christians believe that Jesus is this expected Messiah. Unlike the messiah the Jews expected, Jesus came to free all people, Jew and Gentile, and he did not come to free them from the Romans, but from sin and death. Christians have long celebrated Jesus as Christ, and his reign as King is celebrated to some degree in Advent (when we wait for his second coming in glory), Christmas (when "born this day is the King of the Jews"), Holy Week (when Christ is the Crucified King), Easter (when Jesus is resurrected in power and glory), and the Ascensio (when Jesus returns to the glory he had with the Father before the world was created).

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, is a relatively recent addition to the Western liturgical calendar, having been instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XII. In 1970 the Roman Catholic observance of this feast was moved to the final Sunday of Ordinary Time.

Pius XI and the rest of the Christian world witnessed the rise of dictatorships in Europe and saw Catholics being taken in by these earthly leaders. Just as the Feast of Corpus Christi was instituted when devotion to the Eucharist was at a low point, the Feast of Christ the King was instituted during a time when respect for Christ and the Church was waning, when the feast was most needed.
